Dear AMCS Parents,

By now, your teacher would have already provided you information and the resources regarding at-home learning, which has started this week.

Please remember that there are daily items to be submitted/reported to your teacher in order to count for daily attendance. There are also items due at the end of each week. For younger children, please keep track of your child's daily work in a spiral notebook. For Grades 1 thru 8, your child will write down the items completed each day in the work journal. Your teacher checks your child's work everyday. If you have questions regarding the assignments, please contact your teacher.
